A TEMPLE TO FRIENDSHIP. (BY THOMAS MOORE.)

"A Temple to Friendship," said Laura, enchange
"I'll build in this garden, the thought is divine
The Temple was built, and she now only wanted
An image of Friendship to place on the shrine.

She flew to a sculptor, who set down before her A Friendship, the fairest his art could invent; But so cold and so dull that this youthful adorer Saw plainly this was not the Friendship she meant

"Oh! never," she cried, "could I think of enshrining
An image whose looks are so joyless and dim:
But yes, little God, upon roses reclining,
We'll make, if you please, Sir, a Friendship of him."

The bargain was atruck; with the little God laden,

e joyfully flew to her shrine in the grove : rewell!" said the sculptor, "you're not the first maiden Who came but for Friendship and took away Love.

R. BODENHAM respectfully ac-R. BODENHAM respectfully acquaints the Publie, that he has received directions to sell a genteel, neat, and compact Marine Cottage Residence, with about 75 Acres of Land, highly improved and fenced, situate only six miles from Sydney, at the junction of Cook's River and Botany Bay. The Cottage contains four good rooms, with butler's pantry, out-offices, and other conveniencies; is admirably adapted for the occupation of a small family, combining the agreeable amusements of abouting, fishing, or marine excursions. The scenery it is presumed to be unnecessary to comment upon, except to strangers, who would find it a pleasant ride or drive to inspect the property, a person being in charge for the purpose of shewing the premises. A pic-nic party would find a day agreeably occupied on a visit of inspection. The scenery, the estuary, and sinuosities of Cook's River, Botany, Bay, the view of the ocean, the grand aspiring chathe estuary, and sinucolities of Cook's River, Botany Bay, the view of the ocean, the grand aspiring character of the Blue Mountains, with numerous other objects, too numerous for an advertisement, as also the opportunity of inspecting the Colonial Cleth Manufactory of Mr. Loud, would all tend to render this an amusing trip. As a summer residence it will be found highly conducive to health, possessing the advantage of sea-bathing, hot, cold, or medicated baths, &c. For an industrious pair, who could command a moderate capital, it is presumed that it would answer almost beyond their most sanguins expectations for the purposes of a marine lodging and bathing house, a convenience particularly desirable in Australia, both for invalide from India, as also to the respectable inhabitants generally.
