THE DEAF AND DUMB.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ARGUS.

Sir,—In your journal of Monday I saw a few lines in behalf of the deaf and dumb of this colony, where there is neither books nor instruction for them. Surely something might be done for them. It is not well to leave them in total ignorance.

I, too, have a daughter, eight years of age, deaf and dumb from colonial fever, and if nothing can be done speedily in this colony I shall be put to the peril and danger of a sea voyage to get her educated in Old England. But should such an institution arise here I would enrol myself a life subscriber.

Hoping you will excuse the liberty I have taken, I enclose my address, and subscribe myself a friend to the cause.

A WIDOW.
