
DEAF JUROR.

Excused by Sir J. Blair.

"MUST HEAR BOTH SIDES."

BRISBANE. Monday.—"I am deaf; the left side is very bad," said a juror, who asked to be excused from serving on the jury at the criminal sittings of the Supreme Court.

The Chief Justice (Sir James Blair): Oh! Well you have to hear both sides here. You are excused.
